Amman

Jerash

Jerash, the Gerasa of Antiquity, is the capital and largest city of Jerash Governorate which is situated in the north of Jordan, 48 kilometers north of the capital Amman towards Syria. Jerash is known for the ruins of the Greco-Roman city of Gerasa, also referred to as Antioch on the Golden River. It is sometimes misleadingly referred to as the "Pompeii of the Middle East or Asia", referring to its size, extent of excavation and level of preservation (though Jerash was never buried by a volcano). Jerash is considered one of the most important and best preserved Roman cities in the Near East.

Dead Sea

Without doubt the world's most amazing place, the Jordan Rift Valley is a dramatic, Beautiful landscape, which at the Dead Sea, is over 400m (1,312 ft.) below sea level. The lowest point on the surface of the earth. This vast, stretch of water receives a number of incoming rivers, including Jordan River. Once water reaches the Dead Sea it's land-locked and have nowhere to go, so it evaporates, leaving behind a dense, rich, cocktail of salts and minerals that supply industry, agriculture and medicine with some of its finest products.

Petra

Petra, the world wonder, is without a doubt Jordan's most valuable treasure and the greatest tourist attraction. It is a vast, unique city, carved into the sheer rock face by the Nabataeans, an industrious Arab people who settled here more than 2000 years ago, turning it into an important junction for the silk, spice and other trade routes that linked China, India and southern Arabia with Egypt, Syria, Greece and Rome.

Wadi Rum

Wadi Rum is also known as The Valley of the Moon. It is a valley cut into the sandstone and granite rock in south Jordan at 60 km to the east of Aqaba. It is the largest wadi in Jordan. The name Rum most likely comes from an Aramaic root meaning 'high' or 'elevated'. To reflect its proper Arabic pronunciation, archaeologists transcribe it as Wadi Ramm. The highest elevation in Wadi rum is Mount Um Dami at more than 1800m above sea level.

(Private Camping, Bedouin Night,, Jeep Safari, self driving jeeps, camel riding, hot air balloon)

Aqaba

It is the capital of Aqaba Governorate. Aqaba is strategically important to Jordan as it is the country's only seaport, located at the head of the Gulf of Aqaba. Best known today as a diving and beach resort, but industrial activity remains important to the area, and the town is a free zone and an exporter of phosphate and some shells.

Madaba

The trip south from Amman along the 5000-year-old is one of the most memorable journeys in the Holy Land, passing through a string of ancient sites. The first city you come upon is Madaba, "The City of Mosaics".

In many respects Madaba is a typical East Bank town which differs in one major aspect: underneath almost every house lies a fine Byzantine mosaic. Many of these mosaics have been excavated and are on display in the town's museum, but it is estimated that many more lie hidden waiting to be discovered.

Mt. Nebo

Drive along the same route prophet Moses (pbuh) was forbidden to travel on by the King of Edom (Numbers 20), and picture yourself standing where Moses was laid to rest, and where the late Pope John Paul II tread on his first pilgrimage of the millennium.

Visit the Sanctuary at Nebo: the memorial of Moses (pbuh), the presumed site of his death and burial place, and a center for pilgrimages since earliest Christian times. You'll be inspired by the biblical feel from the beginning to the end , as if you experienced this divine tour
